Re: United States v. Gary Davis, 13 Cr. 950 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

Sentencing in the above-captioned case was first scheduled for January 17, 2019. Subsequently, the government requested two adjournments, with consent of the defense, so it could await guidance from the Department of Justice regarding interpretation of the First Step Act of 2018. The government has since received its guidance and has detailed its position to defense counsel and the Probation Department (as reflected in the final Presentence Investigation Report ("PSR")), and Gary Davis' sentencing is currently scheduled for March 18, 2019 at 3:00 p.m.

We write on behalf of Mr. Davis to request a brief adjournment of sentencing so that the defense can fully analyze the final PSR and continue discussions with the government about aspects of his sentencing, and also so that his family and friends who wish to attend the sentencing from Ireland can make all the necessary travel arrangements. The government consents to our brief adjournment request, and the parties are available on 4/9, 4/10, 4/11, 4/15/ or 4/16 for the sentencing.

Respectfully submitted,
